

Pro Series PL Hack Squat

The Pro Series Plate Loaded Hack Squat is an essential piece of equipment for anyone looking to build lower body strength and muscle mass. Made with heavy-duty steel and finished with a sleek matte black powder coating, this machine is both durable and stylish. Featuring a plate-loaded design, the Pro Series Plate Loaded Hack Squat allows users to easily adjust the weight to their desired level of resistance. The weight plate storage posts keep the plates organized and easily accessible, reducing clutter in your workout space.
